Straydog vet bill at May 15, 2007 is $12,388*

(More than half of the $12,388 we owe to Morton Clinic was directly due to expenses incurred trying to save the lives of 10 of our dogs who got deathly sick after consuming dog food that had been contaminated with melamine. After a lengthy stay (for some) at the clinic on IV fluids 9 dogs survived and one (over whom we will grieve forever) died. This expense (along with many, many others) we hope to recover from Natural Balance, Inc., the dog food company that irresponsibly allowed the contaminated dog food to be sold to us. Natural Balance, Inc. did not announce the recall notice until one day after we began feeding the contaminated dog food to our dogs.)

Many thanks to those who have already phoned or mailed in donations to
